

Code of Practice / guidelines for events in AZ Conni

We are happy to hear that you decided to organize an event in AZ Conni!

This text is supposed to present the project „AZ Conni“ to you as well as it will give you some assistance with the preparation of an event. It -indeed- contains essential informations; please read carefully!

About AZ Conni

The AZ Conni is understood as a political and sociocultural project.

Referring to our cultural business there are several important points:

- The house is being used by several groups for different reasons. Apart from a self-governing book shop there is also a kindergarten („Kinderladen“) located on the ground; the functioning rooms as well as the outdoor area serve as meeting points for different kinds of people. To assure the coexistence of all those interests, it is important to show consideration and respect to each other
- we put a lot of work in this project because we consider it as politically right/true and important and/or because we just like to do so! This should also be your motivation while you are considering to plan your event here
- Unfortunately, our financial prospects are restricted, so we are unable to compensate loss-making concerts or parties. Please be aware of the fact, that you are carrying the financial risk of your event. If there are uncertainty or questions occurring that concern the financial concept, we are eager to support you! In case your event was still loss-making, we will solve this problem together.
- Our political positions are not uniform, though we came to a minimum consensus (=mutual agreement). On that base we work together in this project. To make it short: The AZ Conni should be free of racism, sexism, antisemitism, homophobia, nationalism and other mechanisms of exclusion. This, of course, concerns all activities, that take place in the house: the acts or artists, the guests, the organizers(s) and us.
Our aim is to make as many people as possible feel welcomed and comfortable. People will be excluded from the event, if their behavior is endangering this.
- Our time and staff is restricted. Thus, the denial of inquiry/requests is possible.
- As it is said before: the AZ Conni is merely existing because we are volunteering. If you are interested to take over shifts yourself or to help us with the organization of the whole cultural business you are very welcome to take part in our weekly culture and bar plenary meeting (mondays 6.30 p.m.)!

planning and procedure of an event

The following party will explain our understanding of planning and realization of events. We experienced many events in this house ourselves, so: if things are written down here, we mean it!

ATTENTION: concerts need to be over by midnight (we have an agreement with the hotel vis-à-vis)

- Ask your friends to support your event by taking over shifts. For concerts you need one person, who cooks for the bands/acts and all the working ones and one person who supports the entry
- The Kinderladen is located in the 1st floor. The area past the staircase is a taboo for party and need to be blocked.
- The fire escape that is connected to the backstage as well as the Kinderladen's playground are No-Go's!
- You are welcome to decorate - please let us know in advance so we can sort this out before.
- We are really not keen to see topless men on stage! We ask you to take care, so that everybody keeps his shirt on. Meanwhile we will make sure, that all guests do so.
- Our toilets are Unisex where people should pee while standing. They are no urinal.

finance and budget

- concerts: 30 % of the entry earnings will be kept by us. By this, we'll pay all people who work, insurance, GEMA and additional costs. The remaining 70% are at your disposal to pay the your expenditures as well as the acts.
- parties: 35 % of the entry earnings will be kept by us. By this, we'll pay all people who work, insurance, GEMA and additional costs. The remaining 65 % are at your disposal to pay the your expenditures as well as the acts. Furthermore you can set out two people who work with us at the entrance - or we do so and then you'll need to pay yet another 100 EUR.
- You'll get also a total of 40 € for the catering in the evening (for the acts, bartenders, „security“) and, if necessary, for the following morning's breakfast. Please keep the receipts.
- Each act/band member will receive 4 free drink vouchers, maximum admissible per evening are 60 vouchers. All the acts, organizers and working people can get drinks for reduced prices. Please do not serve your whole circle of friends with that!
